7th ACE TEAM AWARDS INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION

17-18 November 2023

28th APQO International Conference in 17-18 November 2023

Radisson Hotel Kathmandu, Kathmandu, Nepal

The Asia Pacific Quality Organization works towards encouraging and recognizing quality professionals and organizations.

The Awards for Contributing to Excellence (ACE) are to recognize and celebrate organization's teams contributing to quality advancement and business excellence at workplaces across all sectors in APQO member countries.

ACE showcases organizations embracing validated, proven and sustainable management best practices and quality systems for quality advancement and business success to support Asia Pacific economic development, growth and success.

The Awards promote the adoption of proven or new approaches, strategies and best in class practices of operational performance. To stay competitive, these driving forces may include:

- 4th Industrial revolution enabling technologies
- automation and data technologies
- smart manufacturing
- service 4.0
- digital transformation
- data analytics
- development of smart talents
- customer focus
- smart processes
- process review
- continuous improvement

ACE is the only international team recognition process of its kind and recognises on an international platform the best of the best.
