Dear Members & Friends

CHANGES TO APQO 2020 PROGRAMS DURING COVID-19 PANDEMIC

Greetings for Safe & Healthy Day!

APQO is continuously assessing the changing circumstances related to COVID-19 pandemic and continued supporting our stakeholders with minimum interruption. We will continue to serve you and conduct our business remotely. Considering the cancellation of international travels and other factors we made the difficult decision to cancel the APQO 2020 Conference scheduled to be held in Perth, Australia. Each day brings new developments, so we have assessed the situation and decided to continue with APQO programs planned for 2020 as given below with extended deadlines. We do not anticipate any disruptions to our normal support activities during this temporary adjustment with extended deadlines.

Activity/Program	Revised Deadlines
GPEA 2020	30 September 2020 For submission of application documents.
AIBP	30 September 2020 For submission of application documents
AIC	30 September 2020 For submission of application documents
AIIA	Nomination will be called in July with 30 September 2020 as deadline for submission of nominations.
APQO Virtual Conference	19th October 2020 Inaugural APQO Virtual Conference with Keynote speeches & presentations.
Notes: <ol style="list-style-type: none">ACE will not be held in 2020All Awards will be presented at APQO Conference 2021 in Perth, Australia.

If you have not submitted your application documents so far and need more time kindly note the extension of deadlines.

Kind Regards
